CARPENTERS AND JOINERS SUSPENDED

LARGEST BUILDING TRADES UNION WILL NOT OBEY DECISION

Federation of Labor Officials Say that Suspension Will Not Affect
Its Affiliation with that Body
--Irish Sympathizers Failed to Get Resolution Thru.

(By The Associated Press)
DENVER, Colo., June 11.—Suspension of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners—the largest building trades union—from the building trades department, would not affect its affiliation in the American Federation of Labor.

This announcement was made tonight by federation officials to set at rest reports that the action of the carpenters' union in withdrawing today from the department's convention automatically results in its suspension.

The withdrawal followed adoption of a resolution providing for the suspension of any international union that failed to obey the decisions of the national board of jurisdictional awards, established to prevent by arbitration the tying up of the building industry by jurisdictional strikes.

Debate was long and stormy. President William L. Hutchison of the Carpenters' union leading the fight against the board, declaring it was not representative and had not given his organization a "square deal." He was opposed by William Bowen, president of the International Union of Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers who said the board had saved builders millions of dollars and had been a great factor in stabilizing the building industry.

When the roll call revealed that the motion had been carried by a vote of 35 to 25, President Hutchison led his delegation out of the auditorium declaring they could not comply with the board's decision because they were instructed by the National convention of their membership not to do so.

"We consider ourselves suspended," said President Hutchison, "but we go along as usual in the organized labor movement." President John Donlin of the department said an effort would be made to have the executive council of the department meet with the Carpenters and attempt to get their promise to obey the board's decisions.

The department adopted a resolution authorizing the executive council to investigate the possibility of establishing a national building material supply company and report back to the next convention.

Irish Sympathizers Fail
Irish sympathizers failed to secure the adoption of a resolution calling for a boycott on all English made goods until Great Britain had stopped its "war of reprisals, killing of people and destruction of property in Ireland."

The department voted to send $500 to the building trades council of Pueblo, Colo., to be used for the flood relief.

President Donlin and Secretary William Spencer of the department were re-elected to office. Alleged advocates of the one big union idea met a second defeat in the metal trades department convention when their proposal to call a convention to consider united action and cooperation in fighting wage reductions, the open shop and anti-union interests was defeated.

Opponents declared executive officers of the international unions were not competent to draft such a plan without calling a convention that would give the one big union advocates an opportunity to put the doctrine into effect.

John L. Lewis, president of the United States Mine Workers has been mentioned as a candidate to oppose Samuel Compers for the presidency of the federation, declined to make any statement upon his arrival today but it is understood he will not run for the office.

JUDGE LANDIS ACCEPTS POSITION

Chicago, June 11.—Federal Judge K. M. Landis tonight accepted the post of arbiter in the building trades wage dispute. At a meeting with Edward M. Craig, secretary of the building construction employers' association and Thomas Kearney, president of the Chicago Building Trades Federation Council he specified one condition that the lockout be ended and building be resumed in full by Tuesday morning. The unions and contractors representatives agreed.

BITTER PARTISAN FIGHT RESULTS ON PEACE RESOLUTION

Democrats Say it Will Be Approved by Germans and Slackers

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 11.—After a bitter partisan fight, the house took up today the Porter resolution terminating the state of war between the United States and the Central Powers and will pass it Monday as a substitute for the Knox resolution repealing the declaration of war.

Passage of the resolution is certain, any lingering doubt in the mind of the Democratic leaders have been removed through adoption today, 208 to 105, of a rule giving the Porter proposal right of way in place of the Knox resolution. Reports were current tonight that more than a score of Democrats would vote for the resolution on the final roll call at 4:30 o'clock Monday.

Democratic members in beginning today their attack on the measure first criticized what they characterized as the "throttling of the house, by forcing acceptance of a resolution which they said had been framed in secret by Republican members of the foreign affairs committee and would not permit of amendment. Then turning sharply on the resolution the Democrats declared it would meet with hearty approval of "every German, every slacker and every American traitor."

Would Not Repeat Declaration
Chairman Porter of the foreign affairs committee asserted the house was not ready to go as far as the senate and repeal the war declaration for that, he said might be regarded as an actual repudiation of the war in which thousands of American lives had been sacrificed.

Statements of opponents of the resolution that by officially declaring the state of war at an end, America was abandoning the allies or its fighting assistants were denied by Chairman Porter as a "gross misstatement of fact."

Mr. Porter insisted that since the allies made peace in 1919, if there had been any abandonment, "it had been of the United States by the allies."

"It may not be out of place to call attention to the fact," he said, "that when the peace resolution reached the house the allies had invaded Germany for the enforcement of the adjustment of the reparations and your committee decided it should forgo action until Germany had conceded the demands of the allies and had shown her good faith by payment of the earnest money in the form of the first installment of the indemnity. We have given the allies the traditional 'square deal.'"

EVANGELIST DIES IN CHICAGO HOSPITAL

CHICAGO, June 11.—Prof. Edwin E. Excell, 69, evangelist, choir leader and publisher of religious song books, died in a hospital today after an illness of more than six months.

Professor Excell, a member of the Methodist church for 20 years associated with Sam Jones, the Georgia evangelist, serving as chorister. In 1881 he began publishing hymn books that soon attained a wide circulation. Since 1914 he had been an officer of the International Sunday association.

FINAL STEPS TAKEN IN FARMER CORPORATION

Chicago, June 11.—Final steps in the organization of the $100,000,000 farmers finance corporation were taken today when the executive committee of the United States grain growers, Inc., received word that the articles of incorporation and by laws had been filed at Wilmington, Del., C. H. Gustafson, Lincoln, Neb., was elected president; Frank M. Myers, Fort Dodge, Iowa, secretary and William G. Eckhart, DeKalb, Ill., treasurer.

THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO F. W. GALBRAITH

Theodore Roosevelt
One of Those Delivering Addresses

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 11.—Thousands of persons from all walks of life this afternoon paid their last tribute to the memory of Colonel Frederick W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion who lost his life last Thursday in an automobile accident in Indianapolis. The funeral services were held in Music hall under the auspices of the American Legion and long before they began there was an endless procession of mourning men, women and children passing the body of Colonel Galbraith which lay in state, every one of the four thousand seats in the auditorium was taken.

Obsequies Were Simple.
The obsequies were under the auspices of the American Legion and were marked by great simplicity. Brief orations were delivered by the Rev. John Harget, who was chaplain of the 147th infantry, commanded by Colonel Galbraith in France; the Rev. Frederick McMillin, who also was an overseas chaplain, Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy who represented the federal government; former Congressman Victor Heintz of Ohio, a captain under Galbraith; Colonel Franklin D. Oller, former commander and Marcel Knecht, director of the French information service in the United States, official representative of the French government. In his address Mr. Roosevelt said:

"In the great civic movements that have strengthened our cities thru the toil of every day life, on the shell torn battlefields of France—where service could be rendered, there you found Colonel Galbraith, at the forefront of the battle, gallantly fighting for the right."

"We mourn his death, but we are proud of his life. We shall miss him in the troubled days that lie before us, but our faith in our country is strengthened, in that it can breed such men."

Has Lost Great Leader.
Colonel Oller said in his eulogy:

"The legion has lost its great leader, the service man and especially the disabled man, has lost his best friend; this city, this state, and this nation has lost one of its most useful citizens. Having known this great character so intimately I am sure that even though he has gone his spirit is still carrying on."

Captain DeLergne, air attaché of the French embassy pithily summed up the tributes of the legionaries on Colonel Galbraith the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor.

At the conclusion of the military services Scottish Rite conducted its impressive burial ceremony. The body was placed in a vault in Spring Grove cemetery preparatory to its interment on the Arlington cemetery in Washington.

One floral offering among the hundreds attracted much attention. It consisted of palms bound with the tri-colors of France and was the tribute of the citizens of Chateau Thierry.

ATTEMPTS MURDER
THEN SUICIDES
FORT MADISON, Ia., June 11.—Louis Bowers, a farmer, today futilely attempted to kill Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, his neighbors, as they lay asleep in their home near Denmark, Iowa, by shooting thru a window. Believing them dead, he climbed to the top of a tree near the scene and tried to hang himself.

The rope broke and he fell. Bowers then obtained a hitching rope and again climbed the tree. This time the rope held and a posse found the body.

The charge from Bowers' gun passed between Thompson and his wife and they were not seriously wounded. Bowers was believed to have been driven insane by the heat.

Chicago, June 11.—A marriage license was issued today to Samuel H. Merritt, 81, and Mrs. Louise V. J. Vaughan, 83. The couple are the oldest to apply for a license in the history of the marriage license bureau. Merritt, a Civil war veteran said:

"I am getting married again because I am lonesome."

BODY OF GIRL IS FOUND MUTILATED IN NEGRO SHACK

Body of Seven Years Old Matilda Russo Is Finally Found

(By The Associated Press)
MOORESTOWN, N. J., June 11.—The body of seven year old Matilda Russo, missing since last Saturday evening, was found today buried in the cellar of a negro's shack not more than 550 yards from her home. The child had been stripped of clothing and the throat and abdomen deeply cut, or hacked. She was the daughter of Michael Russo a tailor.

Police of Burlington and Camden counties tonight are seeking Lewis Lively, a 35 year old negro in whose cellar the mutilated body was found.

While the authorities at first announced that the girl had been mistreated, a physician after an autopsy today said she had not been attacked.

In Lively's house there is a small negro boy whom his wife adopted. This child and the Russo children had frequently quarreled bitterly, the police say, in explaining their belief that the murder was the result of a race feud.

Lively's wife and the negro boy are being held as state's witnesses.

CHARGE SWEEPING IRREGULARITIES IN EXAMINATIONS

This is Alleged in Statement Made Saturday by John J. Watt

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 11.—Sweeping irregularities alleged to have arisen in the conduct of state examinations for mine managers, examiners and hoisting engineers were disclosed today by John J. Watt, secretary-treasurer of the Springfield sub-district No. 4, United Mine Workers.

Mr. Watt charges that a few favored ones have been tipped off to the answers to the examination questions before going into the examination room. The tests were all given under the direction of the state mining board operating under mines and minerals.

The entire matter has been brought to the attention of Governor Len Small. He is understood to have started an investigation. Demands that the examination which was held May 2 be ignored entirely have been made by Mr. Watt and by Freeman Thompson, president of the Springfield sub-division.

"We shall insist on new examinations," Mr. Watt declared.

JUNGLE NATIVES ARE REAL BREWERS

Missionary Says They Make Drink
That Makes One Want to Walk
Backward—Story May Cause
Many to Book Passage to Africa.

(By The Associated Press)
Chicago, June 11.—American home brewers, laboring with hops and malt in dusky cellars or behind drawn blinds are the merest amateurs when compared to the jungle natives of South Africa, according to the Rev. W. C. Terrell, Methodist Episcopal missionary of Johannesburg, British South Africa, who is visiting Methodist headquarters here.

So skillful are the bush savages, he says, that they can make alcoholic drinks from practically anything that grows in the jungle. Oranges, limes, sweet potatoes, pineapple, corn, cassava root and all kinds of native fruits are turned into strong drinks.

The Rev. Terrell described a drink which reverses the motor nerves, giving tipplers an irresistible desire to walk backward with a carnival of ludicrous antics. The liquor comes from the fruit of the cashew tree. The abundant juice ferments in the sun within a few hours and the longer it stands the stronger it becomes.

The cashew fruit ripens twice a year each season lasting six weeks, the missionary said, and during these periods every bush native is in a continuous state of intoxication and refuses to perform any work.

Washington, June 11.—House Republicans will hold a conference next week to consider reapportionment of congressional representation on the basis of the 1920 census. The discussion is expected to embrace the proposal of Representative Tinkham, Massachusetts that the number of representatives from southern states be decreased on account of disfranchisement of negroes.

SPENCER PREVENTS ATTORNEYS FROM COMING TO BLOWS

Exciting Moments in Sessions Held in the Newberry Case

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 11.—Working thru two prolonged sessions the senate committee hearing Henry Ford's contest for the seat of Senator Newberry of Michigan today considered how far Senator Newberry was influenced as to the expenditures in his 1918 campaign, abated one almost physical row and about forty minor ones opposing counsel and revised the sick list among the subpoenaed witnesses.

A neutral medical expert reported that Henry B. Joy, a Detroit capitalist who helped finance the Newberry campaign might be killed by excitement or exertion and the demand for his attendance was dropped.

B. F. Emery, office manager for the Newberry campaign committee was reported by his wife as "somewhere in Canada" when the investigating doctors sought him and renewal of search was ordered after Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, commented that all the details of money handling as the witnesses developed them "seem to be up to Emery."

His name came into examination when Charles A. Floyd, campaign secretary was being quizzed by William Lucking, Ford counsel, about checks for approximately $45,000 which he said were "reconciliation checks" matters of bookkeeping arrangement and recording but not duplicating expenditures.

Attorneys Near To Blows
"You've been living off Newberry and his friends in Detroit ever since this campaign haven't you?" Mr. Lucking demanded, and Judge Murlin, Newberry counsel, exclaimed the question was "naughty, dirty, common" and that the witness didn't have to answer.

"Aw shut up, Lucking retorted clearing for action." Chairman Spencer, after enforcing a truce, drew from the witness an answer that the question and all its implication was "positively" untrue. Paul H. King, Newberry campaign manager, was cross examined by Alfred Lucking on the general question of Senator Newberry's familiarity with the campaign. He explained scores of communications passing between himself and the senator and their bearing on the campaign.

"I didn't take up the question of finances with him," he said to the reiterated questions, "because I knew John S. Newberry, the senator's brother) was financing campaign and that I was practically unlimited as to the expenditure."

EXCHANGE VIEWS ON AGRICULTURAL RELIEF

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Views on measures for agricultural relief said development were exchanged at a conference tonight between Secretary Walcott of the agriculture, Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce and a score of western and southern senators, comprising the new agricultural bloc.

Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, chairman said the conference was for an exchange of opinions regarding pending and future legislation and not for framing recommendations. The principal subjects under discussion, Senator Kenyon said, were the export situation affecting farm products, agricultural credit extension and amendments to the federal reserve act in behalf of agricultural producers.

SEVEN BIG BERTHAS: ALL ARE DESTROYED.

Berlin, June 11.—Replying to the interallied military commission's note regarding the location of the "big Berthas" used by the Germans during the war, the German government said there were seven such long range guns of which four were destroyed before the armistice, the fifth was scrapped at Essen in April, 1919; the sixth was scrapped at Meppen, and the seventh at Magdurg in November, 1919.

WARNING ISSUED TO OUTSIDERS TO STAY AWAY FROM PUEBLO

Neither Food, Shelter Nor Work for Newcomers—Finding Shows That Water Commissioner Was Shot Accidentally by Ex-Service Man—Rural Conditions Serious

(By The Associated Press)
PUEBLO, Colo., June 11.—Warning that Pueblo has not food, shelter or work for outside labor was sounded here late today by Col. Patrick J. Hamrock, adjutant general of the Colorado National Guard.

"I wish The Associated Press would tell the whole world to stay away from Pueblo," Colonel Hamrock said. "The food supply would not suffice for any large number of newcomers."

"There is less disease in Pueblo now than before the flood," Major J. C. Cornell, district inspector for the United States Public Health Service declared today.

With the formal findings that the shot which killed E. E. Withers, Pueblo water commissioner and business man was accidentally fired by an ex-service man, not a member of the Colorado National guard or of the Colorado rangers another sequel to one of the greatest tragedies that occurred during the flood period was recorded.

Rural Condition Serious.
Major Christopher F. Cusack, assistant chief of staff declined to make public the name of the individual. Serious problems of relief in the rural districts were reported to the Red Cross relief administration here. The floods have practically wiped out scores of farms along the river district carrying away farm implements and equipment and washing off crops, the report shows. It will be necessary for these farmers to replant by June 15 if they expect to make a crop and some kinds of crops are already too late for successful replanting, the report adds.

First definite results of the census of storm sufferers in Pueblo were available today. The survey sheets at general headquarters showed 1,619 families listed, with the list not completed. All will need assistance.

NEW PROHIBITION COMMISSIONER TAKES UP DUTIES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 11.—Roy A. Haynes of Hillsboro, O., entered today upon the duties of national prohibition commissioner as the successor to John F. Kramer. He said that while he had not formulated any general policy he brought to his new office the best of his energy and ability.

Upon relinquishment of the post he held since November, 1919, Mr. Kramer issued a formal statement, setting forth some of the more important problems before the new commissioner. To make Haynes' burden easier, Mr. Kramer suggested that congress enact a law giving him authority to limit the number of prescriptions for whisky which physicians may issue and the quantity of whisky which may be manufactured and imported and to prevent the use of whisky in medicines in which alcohol has customarily been used.

Primary among the problems facing the new prohibition commission Mr. Kramer said will be the necessity of maintaining an organization which will loyally do the work he has to do. While a few prohibition enforcement officers have betrayed their trust, he declared the great majority are loyal and honest.

"Second, alcohol will continue to be a problem," he said. "It must be encouraged for industrial uses and purposes, yet it can easily be made a potable liquor."

Border Problem Serious.
"Third, the border problem is a rather serious one, in that liquors are smuggled into the country. This will remain a problem until foreign governments can see their way clear to so adjust their laws that they will not make it difficult for their neighbor and friends to carry out the law."

"Fourth, the illicit making of whisky and this especially in the south will remain a problem for some time to come."

"Fifth, the withdrawal of whisky and alcohol from bonds or forged permits. This has been one of our greatest problems and is not altogether solved."

Local and state support to federal officials has become more pronounced Mr. Kramer continued.

Commissioner Haynes announced tonight the appointment of James E. Jones, formerly of Youngstown, Ohio, as assistant prohibition commissioner.

A court in Bloomington has decided that the city is entirely within its rights in the passage of an ordinance covering dance pavilions. The proprietor of one of these establishments thought the provisions of the ordinance too rigorous and brought suit. In these dance halls and pavilions are in such potent need of supervision that the verdict is any proprietor had the hardihood to introduce a test suit.

A Chicago merchant when held up by bandits reached for his revolver but before he could use it was shot three times. This is just one of many incidents to give proof that there is very little use for a private citizen to go armed.

The bandit always has the "drop" on him and a show of resistance instead of getting good results most frequently has a fatal ending for the man who starts to protect himself. Some how we sympathize with John R. Thompson who offers a reward of $1600 to any one who can advance a single valid reason for the manufacture and general sale of revolvers.

PLAN WORTH WHILE PROGRAM.

The committee arranging the program formally taking note of the completion of the light and power plant has quite properly chosen July 4 for the observance date. A local band will play all day and there will be several features to make the observance noteworthy and worth while. A modest sum of money will be necessary for the financing of this observance program and citizens will be asked to provide the necessary funds.

THE FOULY OF WORDS.

Admiral Sims has been recalled from England and at the he is to sail on the date originally expected, the fact of his recall by the secretary of the navy, has in it a merited bit of punishment. That the admiral talked too much at home makes little difference, but as a guest in another country it is quite a different matter.

Incidentally the government might as well send a note to

Col. Harvey suggesting his return to the U. S., for it is pretty certain that sooner or later his sharp sarcastic tongue will get him into trouble.

DISTRIBUTION A BASIC THING

Mr. Lasker, Chicago advertising man, is to become head of the shipping board. While he admittedly knows nothing about ships, he does know about distribution. That is really one of the big tasks of the shipping board—working out the problem of distribution and in its application to foreign trade.

Ordinarily you would not think of training as an advertising specialist fitting a man for the onerous duties of the shipping board, but when you study the matter you find there is an existing relationship. At any rate Mr. Lasker is a man with large business experience and has been very successful in his own affairs.

JUST THE ONE SENSIBLE COURSE.

Judge Landis has accepted the post of arbiter in the long continued dispute between the building trades workers and the contractors in Chicago. It was characteristic of the judge that he agreed to take this onerous post if the men would return to work Tuesday and they accepted.

There is a fine lesson in this Chicago situation for the employers associations and the labor unions, in the numerous cities and towns where building operations are at a stand still because of the failure to reach wage agreements. Certainly it is high time for men who differ to get together. If employers and employees are not able to reach an agreement they should certainly submit the matter to arbitration. The men unwilling to arbitrate any question are usually in the wrong.

FACING RESPONSIBILITY

Chamber of Commerce directors are soon to meet for the election of officers and it may be expected that the work of the organization will be undertaken in the course of a very short time. The officers and directors will face a responsible situation for the large membership will quite naturally expect results. The most hopeful indication that results may measure up to expectancy is the very fact that so large a number of the people of Jacksonville have banded themselves together in a Chamber of Commerce organization, and have thus declared their belief that things worth while can be accomplished thru united effort.

Most of these same people realize that without that union of effort the possibilities of accomplishment are slim indeed. The period of discussion which preceded the launching of the movement was indeed helpful in that it led many people to feel that a Chamber of Commerce organization has many duties other than the mere effort to establish new business enterprises. There is much in the theory that if the right conditions and surroundings are built up in a city in natural course of events the business enlargement is practically certain to follow.

REV. LINTON PAYS TRIBUTE TO WOMAN

Preached Strong Sermon on the Christian Home—Mrs. Linton Arrives and Takes Part in the Service.

Mrs. Linton arrived from Springfield Saturday and will be here with her husband during the remainder of the meetings.

At the meeting last evening Rev. and Mrs. Linton sang a duet which was well received by the audience. Delegations were present from Alexander and Concord and testimony was given to the good that had been done in those places.

The subject of the address last evening was "Home," and the speaker drew a touching picture of the Christian home. He said that too many so-called homes were only palaces of aching hearts; that it takes a Christian man and woman to make a true home.

He paid a beautiful tribute to womanhood and remarked that a town should never rise higher than its best woman and not fall lower than its worst one.

He said that his father was a drunkard for 18 years preceding his conversion but had always voted the prohibition ticket, even when he was drunk, and that was more than some church members did when they were sober.

Four persons responded to the altar call and confessed conversion. Announcement had been made that all who came to the service should bring a wash cloth. Quite an assortment was brought and placed on the platform. They will be sent to the Chaddock Boys School in Quincy.

There will be three services today at which Rev. Linton will preach. One at 10:45, at 3:00, and 8:00.

FORDS RUN 34 MILES ON GALLON OF GASOLINE

Start Easy in Coldest Weather—Other Cars Show Proportionate Saving.

A new carburetor which cuts down gasoline consumption of any motor and reduces gasoline bills from one-third to one-half is the proud achievement of the Air-Friction Carburetor Co., 638 Madison St., Dayton, Ohio. This remarkable invention not only increases the power of all motors from 30 to 50 per cent, but enables every one to run slow in high gear. It also makes it easy to start a Ford or any other car in the coldest weather. You can use the very cheapest grade of gasoline or half gasoline and half kerosene and still get more power and more mileage than you now get from the highest test gasoline. Many Ford owners say they now get as high as 45 to 50 miles to a gallon of gasoline. So sure are the manufacturers of the immense saving "their new carburetor will make" that they offer to send it on 30 days' trial to every car owner. As it can be put on or taken off in a few minutes by anyone, all readers of this paper who want to try it should send their name, address and make of car to the manufacturers at once. They also want local agents, to whom they offer exceptionally large profits. Write them today.—Adv.

O'CONNELL ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE

Jury Decided He Acted in Self Defense in Killing Elwood Lent—Twenty Hours in Reaching Verdict.

The jury which heard the evidence in the trial of Timothy O'Connell charged with the murder of Elwood Lent, returned a verdict about 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, finding the defendant not guilty. The case was given to the jury shortly before 6 o'clock Friday, so that the verdict was reached after about twenty-four hours of deliberation. It was understood that for a considerable period the jurors stood eight to four for acquittal.

The case has been pending for nearly four years as the shooting occurred in September, 1917. The case came to Morgan county on change of venue from Brown county, as it was claimed that O'Connell could not secure a fair and impartial trial there. Since the case has been in the courts of Morgan county, O'Connell and his family have become residents of Jacksonville.

MERRIGAN'S

CAMP FIRE GIRLS WILL RETURN MONDAY

Having Fine Time at Rotary Club Cottage—A Crowded Program for Each Day.

Members of Yonjovski and Aokya camp fires have not had the most favorable weather for their camping expedition, but a letter from girls at the Meredosa club house indicates that they are having a wonderful time. Here is the letter: Meredosa Bay, Friday, June 10.

The camp is progressing splendidly in spite of the rainy days.

We have received several very much enjoyed gifts from our friends, among them were cake and candy from Mrs. Andrew Russell and Mrs. W. B. Young fish from Mayor Berger of Meredosa and pop corn from Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pratt of Joy Prairie. The pop corn was received by Miss Caroline Dean for her success in the treasure hunt but was enjoyed by all the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Andre also treated us to candy.

Thursday afternoon the entire camp enjoyed the boat excursion given by Mayor Berger for Passavant hospital. The Julia Belle Swan was very complete and had a wonderful dance floor, orchestra and a real mirror the like of which we haven't seen for a whole week.

The bathroom on the first deck was next to the dance hall in popularity.

We all got off at the locks and explored, finding many fish. When we got back to Meredosa we left the boat reluctantly especially Mabel and Mary who even danced down the gang plank.

There are many sunburned backs, arms and knees which cause continual groaning. We acquired these valuable possessions on the way back from our Michigan beach.

A track meet is to be held this afternoon down on the beach. All four squads have picked the best they have for the various events and hope for success.

Tomorrow an aquatic meet will be held. Some of the various features will be swimming fifty yards, front and back paddling, single rowing, double rowing and swimming on back.

One of the girls spends most of her time writing letters. We wonder to whom they are written. Maybe this puzzle will be solved on Sunday Visiting Day.

A large collection of sand, fish, toads and various other things have been found by some of the girls and even by Mr. Stickney in their beds. Mr. Stickney likes peanut butter so much that some kind person put a bowl of it by his bed so it would be handy in the night.

We have a very musical windmill which treats us to a concert every night.

The days all are full of activities and no one is looking forward to Monday when we must leave for home.

We are all preparing for tonight night which will be held Saturday night.

We are expecting company for Sunday and some are especially anxious for that day to arrive.

OSAGE ORANGE PICNIC Friends of Illinois College are reminded of the annual Osage Orange picnic supper on the campus Monday, June 13th, at 5:00 o'clock. Come with your friends and bring your lunch. The College will furnish free coffee and a caterer will be on hand with ice cream.

Charles Rann Kennedy's world famous play

The Servant in the House

With an Especially Selected Cast

The famous story written by Charles Rann Kennedy which in dramatic form was first presented more than a decade ago, and still stands as one of the greatest successes in the history of the American stage, has been transformed into a motion picture play that sets a new high mark in the film industry.

"The Servant in the House" through the happy combination of a great story, perfect continuity, ideal cast and splendid direction, has been molded into a film masterpiece.

The subject matter of the play dealing as it does with the family characteristics of a Bishop of the Church of England, was a peculiar one, and the fact that it was handled in such a careful and painstaking manner and by such eminent artists, was in a measure responsible for its success, with the result that the clergy of New York and subsequently all the leading cities throughout the country, gave their unstinted endorsement to the play.

It is clean and wholesome, amusing and dramatic.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 11.—Rear-Admiral Sims was ordered home from London today by Secretary Denby as a result of his recent speech attacking Sinn Fein sympathizers in the United States. The secretary explained that he had received no reply in response to his message inquiring if press dispatches had quoted correctly excerpts from the speech and had decided to revoke the remainder of the admiral's leave and order him to report here immediately.

The order was not expected to expedite Admiral Sims' return from England as he had planned to return on the liner Olympic, which sails Wednesday, the first available ship for passage.

Senators and representatives said today they had received many telegrams from their constituents supporting and criticizing the admiral's quoted remarks.

The admiral said he had not received a cablegram to this effect from Secretary Denby and accordingly declined to comment on the text forwarded by special dispatches.

BODY OF KIDNAPED BOY FOUND IN RIVER

Body is Identified as That of Giuseppe Varotta by Father—Five Being Held in Case.

New York, June 11.—The body of a seven year old boy, found floating in the Hudson river today off Piermont, N. Y., was identified tonight as that of Giuseppe Varotta, kidnapped May 24 and held for ransom. The identification was made by the boy's father, Salvatore Varotta.

The boy disappeared while at play before his home and his parents believed he had been lost after two days the child's mother received a letter demanding $2,500 for the safe return of her son. The letter threatened the child and others of the family with death.

A woman detective posing as a cousin of Mrs. Varotta, trapped five men who came in response to a letter from the mother offering $500 for the boy's return. The police believed the arrests of these five men would frighten the others into returning Giuseppe.

The five men are now in prison awaiting trial under $25,000 bail, each on indictments charging them with being implicated in the attempted extortion of money from Varotta.

MOVIE TREATER MEN ARE PAYING LOTS OF MONEY

Costs More Than $100,000 Annually for Trouble Insurance

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 11.—Proprietors of moving picture theatres in Chicago are paying more than $100,000 annually as "insurance" to prevent trouble in the operation of their theatres. Lewis T. Jacobson, an attorney for various motion picture proprietors told the Dailey joint legislative committee investigating alleged building graft today.

The $100,000 does not include sums paid to avoid or settle construction troubles on new buildings, he asserted, but to avoid interruptions of their business thru strikes, lockouts or other troubles among the movie operators, cashiers, janitors, film carriers and other employees.

Chief of Police Fitzmorris called by the committee after his name had been mentioned in connection with the settlement of labor troubles while he was mayor or Thompson's secretary, testified his office frequently was used as a meeting place for labor business agents and contractors to discuss strike problems. He asserted the payment of graft money for the settlement of strikes never had been mentioned.

WILL MAKE INCENTIVE IN INTELLECTUAL WORK

Wayne, Neb.—There is an indication of a revival of interest among the college students in the world of ideas and a realization by these students that there is something else beside football in a university, according to Professor J. F. House, of the State Normal School here. To prove his statement Professor House pointed to the reception by the student body of a proposal to a debate on the lines of a sporting event and his account of the proceedings follow:

"Wearied and disheartened with the craze for athletics, this school suggested that a literary be instituted in place of merely physical competitions. President U. S. Conn, of Wayne, laid the proposal before the state board of education and received instant and unanimous endorsement and an appropriation for the financing of the scheme. It was then agreed between Wayne Normal and Chadron Normal that the two schools hold a dual contest in oration, debate, essay and reading.

In the preliminaries over 100 students competed for honors and in the final contests the audiences listened to the discussion of such subjects as "The New Movement in Literature in the Trans-Missouri Country," "The Spirit and Influence of Socrates," "The League of Nations," "America's Message to the World," and "Japanese Immigration."

A large number of relieved college professors found that students can think about things that are worth while, and a faint hope arises that the new college hero may be the thinker and the speaker rather than the full back. So satisfactory has the innovation proved that the two institutions have agreed to continue the plan."

BUSINESS DOCTOR

From doctoring human ills to writing prescriptions to cure the business ailments of corporations is the gamut of Frederick Simmonds, formerly a practicing physician. For the past dozen years on Fifth avenue, New York, he has been known as the "Business Doctor." In speaking of his unusual vocation, Dr. Simmonds said, "I became a business doctor through being called to attend a man who through business worry was mentally ill, though physically well. In aiding him I inquired concerning his financial affairs and found his factory in bad shape. I looked over his plant, made certain changes including a new financial statement and obtained needed credit at his bank. He told the story later at a manufacturer's convention and called me a business doctor. Afterwards I had so many requests that I gave up medicine to do what I could to make business more stable."

BELIEVE LANTZ BILLS OPPOSED TO FARM INTERESTS
Percy W. Stephens of Chicago, who for several years pastor of the Baptist church in this city, is now interested in the grain business. Rev. Mr. Stephens sent the following statement with reference to the Lantz bill to the Journal for publication:

Senate Bill 283, known as the Lantz bill, is now before the House of Representatives at Springfield. It is aimed at the present marketing system for grain, and if passed would destroy the present market. It is a class legislation and destructive in its character, in that it tears down the present marketing system, and offers nothing as a substitute. The men who are actively sponsoring this measure are theorists, and there is not an actual grain man among them.

At this time, when general business is in a precarious condition, it is dangerous to cause further unsettlement by interference with the grain markets of the country. Farmers who favor this legislation are likely not only to regret their position, but as experienced grain men agree, will learn that they have made a serious mistake.

It would be well for the farming communities to see that a thoro trial is given the Co-operative Marketing system so that it may be demonstrated whether it is a dependable system rather than a theoretical dream, before the present grain markets are destroyed.

This bill would destroy the marketing system that it has required sixty odd years of work and the farming community more than it would benefit them. The bill should be defeated.

The Past Noble Grand club of Jacksonville Lodge No. 13, Rebekahs, will meet with Mrs. George W. Davis, 724 South West street, Thursday evening.

FARM BUREAU PLANS PICNIC AT WAVERLY

Three Counties to Unite in Out Door Event July 28th

Plans are well under way for the tri-county picnic to be held at Waverly July 28 under the auspices of the farm bureaus of Morgan, Sangamon and Macoupin counties. Friday night representatives of the Morgan county farm bureau were in Waverly in conference with Mayor Carter, Herbert Rohrer and other citizens relative to the picnic. It is the intention to have a program of speaking, together with the sports and other features which go to make up a real picnic event.

While the three counties are to participate, it is expected that there will be more Morgan county people in attendance than from the other two, and a special effort will be made to have every township of this county largely represented. The Morgan county committee on speakers includes Charles S. Black, president of the Morgan county bureau; G. B. Kendall, county agent and H. P. Rucker, assistant.

SPECIAL NOTICE
For good values of high class Ladies' and Misses Garments and Millinery at very reasonable prices, go to HERMAN'S

OBITUARY.
The following pertains to a lady who was born and reared in the north part of this county, a member of the well-known family of Goodpasture, a sister of Mrs. D. K. McCarty of Litterberry. She had numerous relatives in the vicinity of Concord and Arcadia.

Mrs. H. J. Hazell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McCarty, was born in Cheshire, Ohio, April 2, 1855 and died at her home in Sabetha, May 21, 1921.

She was married to H. J. Hazell, December 23, 1876. To this union four children were born, one of whom Mrs. Armon Brown, preceded her mother to the better world. Two sons, Joe and Robert, and one daughter, Mrs. Helen Ash, with their father survive. Six brothers and two sisters and other relatives and a host of friends also survive.

Mrs. Hazell was a member of the Sabetha Baptist church and a finer type of Christian character never lived than she. She was also a member of the Eastern Star and the members of the organization attended the funeral services in a body.

The Hazell family moved from the farm northwest of town to the home at the southeast edge of town in the early nineties and lived there until about four years ago when they moved to the present home in the northwest part of town.

The family have been a part of the community life for many years and have a host of friends in the community.

How futile are words to express sympathy to those bereft of a loved one or to offer a fitting tribute in memory of a life well lived, yet urged by the sacred ties of friendship we feel constrained to offer a few words of tribute to the memory of one of God's most noble women.

One of the pleasant memories of my childhood is the friendship of this woman in whose home I was always a welcome guest. How I loved her. The news of her fatal illness came to me like a bolt out of a clear sky. She had recovered from many serious illnesses and some how I thought of her as always living on. To those of us who have come within the influence of her beautiful life, her going is a personal loss. Possessed of highest ideals and wonderful gifts of heart and mind, she created about her an atmosphere of happiness and comfort even during years of affliction that impressed all those who came within her influence. Leading the busy life of a farmer's wife, she still found time to give expression to the finer sentiments of life and has left evidence of the great soul that possessed her in the friendships about her. And more, those splendid qualities of heart and mind that will enrich humanity thru the lives of her children who, with a most worthy husband are left to mourn her departure.

Mrs. Hazell was a devoted wife to whose wise counsel and companionship her husband owes much of his success; she was tender, loving mother who wisely held her children to her in closest companionship; she was a friend upon whose lips was always the law of kindness and who, because of her many virtues bound all to her with whom she came in contact. Her services were not confined to her own household, but she was always willing to help out others who were in need. Her quiet, undisturbed thought, her naturally happy disposition and her unselfishness were marked qualities of character that made her welcome wherever there was suffering. The keynote of her simple life might be well expressed in these words, "Not to be ministered unto but to minister."

Her loss will be hard to bear, yet her presence will remain always, saping, to her high ideals the lives of all who knew and loved her for we can say with the poet:

So her life has flowed
From its mysterious urn a sacred stream,
In whose calm depth the beautiful and pure
Alone are mirrored, which into shapes of ill
May hover round its surface glides in light,
And takes no shadow from them.

Mrs. Earl Rexroat was a Saturday shopper from Litterberry.

AMERICAN LEGION MAKES POWER FELT

Has Been Able to Get Favorable Legislation in Nearly Every State—Boxing Bill in Missouri Championed by Legion.

Chicago, June 11.—The power of the American Legion and of other ex-soldier organizations has made itself felt in the form of legislative action in nearly every state in the middle west. Thirteen states report such action.

Entirely aside from the bonus measures, which have been carried in several states, a host of other legislation bearing on a mass of diverse subjects has emerged from the legislative halls under the banner of the various ex-soldier organizations. Some of this legislation has been devoted solely to the interest of the men themselves, some of it has had a semi-public interest, some of it has been devoted wholly to the interest of the public.

In Missouri, boxing was the subject of a measure championed by the American Legion; boxing is now legal in Missouri, Nebraska, too, passed a measure legalizing the sport at the instigation of the Legion. The Nebraska measure carried an amendment limiting the admission charge to all matches to $1.

"Americanization" has been the subject of a deal of legislation which the ex-soldiers have sponsored. North Dakota recently passed a law making American citizenship a prerequisite to employment as a teacher in the public schools. Nebraska now forbids the teaching of a foreign language in her grade schools, and her lower house has gone on record opposing the ownership of land by Japanese. In Missouri the American flag must fly from all school houses and in Oklahoma it must be displayed in all school rooms. The teaching of history and government is now compulsory in the grade schools of Oklahoma. Falsely claiming membership in the American Legion, or the unwarranted use of its insignia, is a misdemeanor in North Dakota.

Armistice Day is now a legal holiday in North Dakota, Nebraska and Missouri.

Preferential appointment to state positions is vouchsafed to ex-soldiers in Missouri, other things being equal; however, the constitutionality of this law is questioned in several quarters on the ground that it is alleged to restrict the appointing power of a state official. In Indiana a recent enactment provides for the appointment of veterans to the board of trustees of the soldiers home and the soldiers and sailors orphans' home.

Arkansas has turned over the old state house at Little Rock to the American Legion as a permanent headquarters. As restored, it will serve also as a lounging place for all ex-service men and as a dormitory for visiting veterans. In Oklahoma the boards of county commissioners have been empowered to enter into contract with Legion posts to secure any county property to serve as a club for veterans. Two states, Indiana and Illinois, have memorialized congress to pass pending soldier relief bills.

Illinois has several bills of the kind pending. One which has passed the senate would permit only orphans of world war veterans to be admitted to soldiers' orphans' home at Normal, Ill., at the same time dedicating the home to the veterans. Another bill before the Illinois solons authorizes the levying of a 2 mill tax to form a burial fund for ex-servicemen, their widows, wives and mothers. Still another bill would appropriate $500,000 for hospital for disabled veterans. A fourth measure now pending would erect a memorial costing $25,000 to the mothers of the ex-servicemen.

Temperance laws recently passed in Uruguay are designed to make that country totally "dry" by 1925, when the nation will celebrate its centenary.

EVER BEARING ORANGE BELIEVED DISCOVERED

Growers Believe It Will Revolutionize Orange Industry.

Tampa, Fla.—An ever-bearing orange tree which citrus fruit growers believe is destined to revolutionize the orange industry of the state if not of the entire country, has been discovered by horticulturists in a small grove at Avon Park, near here, and to protect the specimen its purchasers have placed around it a heavy wire fence twenty feet in height and stationed guards day and night.

The tree has been in bearing continuously eight years but until recently its existence was known only to the owner and several neighbors, who, according to citrus experts, did not realize its value but regarded it merely as a freak of nature. Several of south Florida's largest citrus growers have organized a syndicate, purchased the tree, leased the ground upon which it stands and already are taking steps to develop its possibilities by propagating it through budwood, with the expectation of having 250,000 trees ready for setting out in groves by 1923.

The ever-bearing tree is about fifteen years old but its origin is a mystery. Like the famous Temple orange tree discovered some years ago on the estate of the late W. C. Temple, one time National League baseball magnate, the new specimen stands alone as the first of an entirely new branch of the citrus family and its owners believe it will bring forth stock true to the parent tree, and, as in the case of the Temple tree, be worth millions to the men who had the foresight to grasp its possibilities.

Apparently authentic records show that for eight years the tree has bloomed and borne fruit continuously and that at no time during that period has it failed to have blossoms and fruit at all stages of maturity. In outward appearance the fruit is a Valencia except that it is slightly more oblong than that variety. The meat in texture and flavor is that of a perfect Valencia, the variety that brings the top price in the markets.

The ever-bearing Florida lemon has been common for many years but citrus experts here declare they never before have known of an ever-bearing orange.

FIRE HORSE THING OF PAST IN DEPARTMENTS

Only Four Cities in Illinois Have Departments Entirely Dependent on the Horse.

Springfield, Ill.—The fire horse the object of so much sentiment in the past, has almost lost out in the progress toward higher efficiency in Illinois fire departments.

Of seventy-one cities of more than 5,000 population only four today depend entirely on the horse—Burlington, Madison, Mt. Vernon and Staunton. Forty-one cities have entirely motorized their departments, while 26 remaining twenty-six motorization is in progress. It is estimated that the latter cities horse-drawn apparatus is far in the minority, in some cases being held merely in reserve, while in only ten of them does the horse have an even break, or better.

These figures are shown by a survey made by State Fire Marshal John G. Gamber. Reports were secured from all but eight cities of more than 5,000 population.

Twenty-six of such cities are equipped with telegraph fire alarm systems. The balance rely on the telephone alone, or the telephone, supplemented by whistle, siren or bell.

The per capita fire loss in 1920 ranged in these cities from 17.9 cents in Maywood to $105.84 in Madison. The high figure in Madison was due to a disastrous industrial fire. The average per capita fire loss in the United States is $3 per year. Forty-four of these cities ran under this. Sixteen of them were under $1. Burlington, 76 cents; Berwyn, 57 cents; Collinsville, 20 cents; Edwardsville, 37 cents; Forest Park, 48 cents; Granite City, 20 cents; Harvey, 91 cents; LaSalle, 69 cents; Litchfield, 53 cents; Maywood, 18 cents; Metropolis, 83 cents; Murphysboro, 79 cents; Rockford, 98 cents; Staunton, 56 cents; Taylorville, 52 cents; Waukegan, 98 cents.

Nineteen cities ranged from $3 to $10 in per capita loss, four ran between $10 and $20 and one between $20 and $30.

The state fire marshal has announced he expects to devote special attention to cities registering high losses in an effort to bring down their averages.

FORTY FIVE HOME RUNS IN MAJORS

Lively Ball Responsible for That Number in National and American League Last Week—Heilmann Still Leading American and Hornsby National.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The "lively ball" was responsible for 45 home runs in the major leagues during the past week, according to figures released today and which include games of last Wednesday. The American league is credited with 32 of these, while National League batters bagged thirteen.

Babe Ruth, of the Yankees, the home run king, made one four-pipe blow during the week and brought his total credited to his club, which is at the top of the list for home run honors in both circuits. The Yankees, near the top, have bagged 33 circuit drives. The Athletics, in last place have 32 round trip blows to their credit.

The New York Giants, top all the clubs in the National league and are tied with the Athletics at 32. George Kelly, of the Giants, who is often threatened to compete with the American league slugger for round trip tickets, fell by the wayside and has been passed by "Irish" Meusel of the Phillies and Cubs at Chicago. The blow gave him a total of ten home runs.

Leslie Mann of the Cardinals of the week among the batters in the Heydler circuit. Mann boosted his mark from 320 to 362, a gain of 42 points, while Fournier, the week's champion on the same club, added 31 points to his average, bringing it up to .35. Roger Hornsby, another St. Louis star, who has been holding down first place, took occasion to fatten up his average against the eastern clubs and brought his mark to .424. McHenry, another teammate is 3 runner-up with .382, while Johnston of Brooklyn is third with .389.

Frish of New York has stepped out in front among the base stealers with eleven thefts. Carey of Pittsburgh is one behind him. Other leading batters who have participated in 25 or more games: Grimes, Chicago .365; Mann, St. Louis .362; Sullivan, Chicago .354; Fournier, St. Louis .350; Turney, Pittsburgh .347; Maranville, Pittsburgh .347; Meusel, Philadelphia .346.

Tris Speaker, pilot of the world's champions pulled away from Tyrus of the Detroit manager, for the runner-up honors among the batters of the American league. Spoke boosted his mark from .408 at which he was tied with the Georgia peach a week ago to .417, while the Detroit star, slumped seven points and dropped to third place with an average of .417. Harry Heilmann, the slugging outfielder of the Tigers, hammered on five more points to his average which has brought him up to .400. George Sianler, the St. Louis star, slumped slightly in his hitting, but retains fourth place with .398.

Harris and Rice, the Washington duo are having a merry race for stolen base honors. Each has pilfered a dozen sacks but Siler is right on their heels with eleven thefts.

Other leading batters: Severid, St. Louis, .381; Williams, St. Louis, .376; Gharitty, Washington .362; R. Jones, Detroit .361; E. Collins, Chicago .356; Ruth, New York .349.

"Red" Russell continues to be the Babe Ruth of the American Association. Reb has broken the tie he shared with Bunny Brief of Kansas City for home run honors. The Minneapolis slugger bagged four homers in the past week and Reb made all of them, bringing his string up to eleven, while Brief of Milwaukee stole another base during the week and is showing the way to the base stealers with 13 thefts.

Butler, of Kansas City, altho he went into a slight batting slump, continues to top the regulars with an average of .441. Hauser, Milwaukee, who also suffered a falling off in his hitting, continues to be the runner up with .408, while Kirk of Louisville, went on a batting rampage and boosted his mark from .398 to .404, which gives him third place.

Holds Boston to Five Scattered Hits—Erratic Support Prevents Shutout.

Chicago, June 11.—Grover Alexander was in fine form today and held Boston to five scattered hits while Chicago hit opportunely and defeated the visitors, 6 to 3, in the first game of the series. Alexander's single in the fourth put Chicago out in front as it sent two runs home and they never were headed thereafter. Erratic support behind Alexander prevented him from scoring a shutout. The score: Chicago, 6; Boston, 3.

BENNY KAUFF, GANTS

KAUFF, AFTER REINSTATEMENT, TO FIGURE IN TRADE

It is expected that Judge Landis will decide that Benny Kauff, the Giant's outfielder who was recently acquitted of stealing an auto is eligible to play. It is rumored that he will be traded to Cincinnati, perhaps as part payment for Groh.

DEMPSEY WILL TAKE NO CHANCES AT BOXING

Champion Will Not Work Tomorrow Despite Assurance of Physician—May Resume Boxing Monday.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 11.—Despite the assurance of his physician that "boxing could be resumed without further danger of injury to his damaged eye, Jack Dempsey will not put on the gloves tomorrow as had been planned. Dempsey said tonight he would not take any chances of having the cut ripped open again. He may resume boxing Monday if the cut is satisfactory. Richard Croker, former Tammany leader visited the champion's camp this afternoon. He brought Dempsey a new system of training which, he said, was given him by a physician in Ireland.

It is similar to the training given aviators in the world war and Dempsey promised to consider it. The title holder took a long walk this morning and on his return refereed a bout between his brother, Johnny and Joe Benjamin, the lightweight. Johnny failed to respond to the coaching of the champion and quit at the end of the second session. A crowd that packed the hangar back of the camp watched the champion workout this afternoon. Dempsey worked at top speed for thirty five minutes.

MR HEINIE GROH IS BORROWING TROUBLE

Openly Defies Ruling of Judge Landis—Will Never Play Baseball in Big League Until Decision is Reversed.

Cincinnati, O., June 11.—Heinie Groh the Red third baseman today openly defied Judge Landis' recent decision requiring him to play with the Cincinnati National League team. He characterized the judge's decision as "unfair." Groh practiced with the club in the morning. "I will never play big league baseball," Groh said, "until the decision is reversed. Judge Landis had no right to order me to play where I don't want to play nor make me accept a salary that does not suit me."

GOOD PITCHERS ARE SCARCE

St. Louis, Mo., June 11.—There has never been a time where there was such a demand for good pitchers or when so few effective hurlers were to be had, in the opinion of Carl Wellman, once a star twirler for the St. Louis Browns and now a scout for that club. Wellman recently completed a tour of a majority of the first class minor leagues in search of pitchers for the Browns, whose whose chief weakness is in the box. "I have watched dozens of games," said Wellman, "and found few pitchers worth even a tryout. In the American Association I found only two men who could pitch creditably. Grigil Barnes, owned by the New York Giants, is doing good work, and the veteran Leon Ames seems to be staying a comeback. Outside of these two men there is not a shutout pitcher in the league and the American Association is supposed to rank next to the majors. "It was the same in many other leagues. Pitchers are missing players."

ST. LOUIS CONTINUES WINNING STREAK

St. Louis, Mo., June 11.—St. Louis continued its winning streak today marking up eight consecutive victories by defeating New York 8 to 3. A sensational running catch by J. Smith of Banerjee's long drive into right field probably saved a tie in the second inning. Score by innings: New York, 100 010 001—3 12 1; St. Louis, 300 010 00—8 13 2. Douglas, Ryan, Benton and Snyder; E. Smith, Schupp, Doak and Clemons.

ST. LOUIS DEFEATED PHILADELPHIA, 5 TO 3

Philadelphia, June 11.—Two doubles and a single together with an error in the eighth inning gave St. Louis a 5 to 3 victory over Philadelphia today. Both Shoemaker and Keefe were hit freely, but Shoemaker's support was better in the pinches. Score by innings: St. Louis, 000 002 030—5 10 1; Phil., 000 010 200—3 11 2. ROOKIES MAKE FANS FORGET OLD IDOLS

Men Who are Accused of Throwing World's Series are Replaced by Youngsters.

Chicago. —Chicago has forgotten the former White Sox idols who brought the world championships to this city and a group of comparatively inexperienced rookies, playing on a team losing more games than it wins, are becoming greater heroes in the eyes of the fans than were the men who once won games almost at will but fell into disgrace through the alleged sell-out in the 1919 world series with Cincinnati.

Joe Jackson, Happy Felsch, Chick Gandil, Swede Risberg, Buck Weaver—names once on every youngster's tongue and in newspaper headlines nearly every day—now are mentioned in Comiskey park only when a fan expresses approval of some rookies' playing by saying "Why that fellow's got it all over —," using the name of the former star whose place the rookie was taking.

The Sox rookies came into the league facing the handicap of having to fill the shoes of some of the greatest players the game has ever known. None of them has become a league leader, but every one of them has won a big place in the Chicago fan's heart by hard work, a trip through the stands would convince most anyone that the persons who pay admission day after day are more than satisfied with their new team no matter how many games it loses.

Bib Falk, who came from a Texas college to replace the great Joe Jackson in left field, is probably the most popular of the youngsters. Falk virtually owns the left field bleachers. He is cheered every time he makes a catch and when he makes errors there is no booing or criticism. Every time he goes to bat the young collegian gets a big hand, for he has developed into the slugger type so popular with the fans. The fans will tell you he hits harder than Jackson and whether he does or not his recent game-winning home run with the bases full and is fence-hitting clouts have made Jackson little more than a memory with the fans.

Sheely Great Fielder
At first base Earl Sheely is considered the best fielder at the first corner since the days of the Jiggs Donohue. This youngster takes wild throws with the ease of George Sisler and his brilliant fielding has made the fans forget his weak hitting. At shortstop, Ernie Johnson, found wanting in the big leagues in past days thru weak hitting, has made himself a hero through sensational fielding and is batting more than .300. Mulligan, at third, is the youngster's earnest work and desire to make good mingled with steady playing, have made a favorable impression. Mulligan, Johnson and Sheely played together with Salt Lake last year and with the veteran Eddie Collins to steady them make an infield which more than satisfies Owner Charles A. Comiskey's customers.

Johnny Mostil from Milwaukee and the veteran Amos Strunk, alternate in center while Harry Ponder, procured from Boston is the idol of the right field bleachers.

The two men whom Comiskey has not been able to replace have, ever, are Eddie Cicotte and Claude Williams, pitchers. Faber has been the only consistent pitcher. Dick Kerr falling down badly, and the rookie pitchers having failed to show more than flashes of form. With Faber in the box, the Sox look like a pennant winner, to their supporters, but on the three days between his turns in the box it is easy to explain their second division position. Two good pitchers, and Comiskey will have, in one season, seen a world championship team wrecked and rebuilt, the fans believe.

The rookies have made good with Chicago partly through their apparent attempts to do their best at all times, but much of their success has been due primarily to the work of Manager Kid Gleason, Ray Schalk and Eddie Collins. Gleason keeps them at practice every morning and Collins and Schalk, two veterans, spend the mornings coaching the youngsters.

Batting averages show that Johnson is the only newcomer outperforming his predecessor, but only in the case of Mulligan and Weaver is there a wide discrepancy in the averages. The marks of the discarded players last year and of the newcomers thus far this season follow:

GREEK COMMISSION COMES INTO OWN

Is Given Recognition for Services Long Since Due—Letter to Dr. Capps Makes Matter Plain.

Notwithstanding the excellence of the work of the Greek commission of the Red Cross, it has been a matter of general knowledge that full credit was not given to members of the commission either for the personal sacrifice made in undertaking the work, or for those things that the commission achieved. However, now at this somewhat belated date the commission is coming into its own.

This fact is disclosed in correspondence and telegrams sent to former members of the commission. Copies were received yesterday by Dr. Carl E. Black, member of the commission, from Alfred F. James, president of the Northwestern Life Insurance Co., who was also one of the commission.

"It is with cordial greetings and satisfaction that I transmit to you, by means of enclosed copies of telegram form and letter to Colonel Olds of the American Red Cross a belated acknowledgment of the work of your commission under the leadership of Col. Capps. I have only received copies of the originals from him this day; he writes from Rome under the date of May 18. In accordance with his wish, I am now disseminating my information, thinking it may to some extent make amends to you all for what I think most of us regarded as utter indifference, ignorance and perverse prejudice repeatedly shown by various heads of the A. R. C. at Washington, in relation to the work in Greece."

Held Out of Credit

"Seemingly by the juggling of certain persons your commission has been held out of any credit for what it accomplished until now, when Col Robert Olds of the American Red Cross shows a disposition to give credit where credit is due. I have long been eager for an exposure of the situation particularly to show why your commission never received the sanction of approval by Washington, and this is the first evidence that the realities have been realized."

"To that extent it is very satisfying, but if it could be accomplished without injuring the Red Cross organization too much, it would have been even more satisfying to see the charlatanism of one man and some of his ilk exposed to the contempt and rebuke of those who contributed funds for the work of the American Red Cross in Europe."

The writer then goes on to relate incidents wherein the person he has charged with misconduct gave to the Queen of Roumania tea intended for refugees in Roumania, to a value of $3,000.

With the letter referred to sent to L. Black is a copy of the telegram of Col. Olds given to Dr. Capps at Athens on May 7 at the banquet of the American Red Cross, together with the reply that Dr. Capps sent. These two telegrams shed additional light on some of the conditions suggested in the letter from Mr. James.

CITY'S NEWEST STORE OPENED SATURDAY

Shanken's Ready-to-Wear Establishment Attracted Hundreds of Visitors—Offerings Found Attractive.

Shanken's Ready to Wear establishment opened at 46 North side the Square Saturday. Announcement of the opening date had been made only a few days in advance but nevertheless the new establishment was thronged from 10 o'clock in the morning until a closing hour. Hundreds of people from Jacksonville and vicinity visited the store and found that the bargains offered were in exact accord with the goods and prices advertised.

Altho, ten clerks were on hand to take care of the trade, it was a matter of regret to the proprietors that a great many people could not be waited upon. However, it will be the policy of the store to make attractive sales of offerings very frequently and the buying public can look forward with interest to an early announcement.

The new fixtures are all in place but the interior decorations have not been fully completed. Albert Shanken, who is associated with his brother, Henry in the ownership and management of this new Jacksonville establishment, left last night for New York City on a purchasing expedition.

Funerals

Hamilton.

The funeral of the venerable James O. Hamilton was conducted at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Caldwell yesterday afternoon in the presence of a goodly number of relatives and sympathetic friends. The presence of a large portion of Matt Starr Post G. A. R. was a noticeable feature of the occasion. The deceased was a faithful soldier and honored member of the post.

Rev. M. L. Pontius conducted the services and music was furnished by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Mae Hitt, Miss Cora Graham, Messrs. Charles L. Mathis and Willard Wesner who sang during the services, "Rock of Ages," "Come Unto Me When Shadows Darkly Gather" and "We Are Going Down the Valley One by One."

After reading suitable portions of scripture Mr. Pontius said in brief: "If the human life is marked by the yearly milestones our deceased brother, Mr. Hamilton had passed a great many marks. The psalmist says the days of the years of our lives are three score and ten but our friend had seen many more. I knew him well and esteemed him highly. He was always optimistic even when an invalid. During his declining years he had the faithful ministrations of devoted daughters and late at Passavant hospital he was faithfully and well cared for. I called on him many times and always found him cheerful and looking on the bright side."

His was the life of a pioneer. Coming here when he was five years old the greater part of his life was spent in this county with the exception of 25 years in Sangamon county, his service in the army during the civil war and his journeys to California. We can never know what we owe these men who came here so early and broke the ground for our later and more comfortable homes. Theirs was an unselfish life and full of good deeds.

Then when his country's call came he said farewell to home and all its ties to endure the life of a soldier fighting to free the four million slaves in our land and to see that "government of the people by the people and for the people should not perish from the earth. He was also a faithful soldier of King Immanuel. The son of a minister he was reared in the nature and admonition of the Lord and has gone to meet the Commander he loved and served. It was he and his comrades here today and the thousands more like them who saved for us of the succeeding generations the glorious union which we today are enjoying. All honor to them. He reared a large family and they too are followers of the Lord he loved and served and do him credit. His work is done, his life is ended, a halo surrounds his memory and truly we may say "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

At the close of the services the remains were borne to their last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery by four sons, N. T. Charles, Hal and John Hamilton, a son-in-law, E. J. Clark and W. B. Rogers.

Honorary bearers, veterans of Matt Starr Post, were John A. Schaub, Ezra Scott, C. Riggs Taylor, W. A. Kirby, Archibald Norris, a member of Mr. Hamilton's company and S. W. Nichols. The beautiful flowers were in charge of Mrs. Jacob Claus, Mrs. H. C. Clement, Mrs. Herbert Rucker and Miss Nellie Glenn. At the cemetery the ritual of the Grand Army was carried out by Commander John A. Schaub and Chaplain Ezra Scott, with L. Goheen, John Minter and S. W. Nichols, token bearers.

PROPOSES TO PUT JACKSONVILLE ON A BETTER "FOOTING"

Shoe Man Says Feet Comfort Service Will Do It

Prominent physicians claim that nine of every ten have some form of foot trouble. Large employers ascribe to this fact that most workers "slow up" perceptibly toward the middle of the afternoon.

Our local shoe dealer, Charles Hopper, agrees that this is all very true, and proposes to demonstrate that it also is needless or, as he puts it, "worse than needless."

His authority for this is Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the Chicago foot specialist, whose methods and appliances for relieving foot troubles and correcting the cause are in use throughout the world.

Hard pavements and other present-day conditions cause the bones forming the arches of the foot to sag down, producing callouses, corns, tiredness, burning sensations and other discomforts.

Dr. Scholl has proved that when these bones are properly supported by appliances of moderately springy metal they gradually resume their normal position and function.

All this week there will be a special demonstration of Dr. Scholl's Foot Comfort Appliances at the Hopper's Shoe Store. This will be conducted by J. L. Read, a graduate Practipedist (foot comfort expert) whose training was received under the direction of Dr. Scholl. He wants to meet and serve every foot sufferer in Jacksonville during this demonstration.

He offers without charge to thoroughly examine the feet through the hose, locate the seat of the trouble, describe the nature of the discomfort and demonstrate the means of correcting the cause. As a result you'll likely hear most of Jacksonville "talking foot" this week.

THE G. A. R. BANQUET
A CORRECTION

The writer greatly regrets the error he made in writing up the affair in connection with Matt Starr Friday evening. As soon as the post program was completed the members were entertained as stated and then invited to the tables where the good things were served. The post has been in the habit of being entertained by the Relief Corps that the writer took it for granted that it was the ladies this time when in fact it was not the case.

The affair was a birthday party given by Mesdames Mary Hughett, Annie Norton, Emma Eckles, Lulu Wakeley, Belle Seymour, Cora Brunk and Mrs. Stubblefield. The ladies secured the use of the Odd Fellows' banquet room and dishes and served a fine dinner which was much enjoyed by their guests and it is a matter of regret that the error was made in the first report.

A GOOD RECORD.

J. S. Sheppard has returned from Springfield where he served as forman of the federal grand jury for a week. It was a strenuous time as a hundred cases were disposed of. The presiding judge said the jury had done more business in a week than any other jury had done in three weeks during the past seven years. The jury adjourned, but may convene again at some time not long hence.

Miss Edna Ryan has returned to her home near Alexander after completing a year's work at Illinois Normal school.

TOURISTS HAVE FINE CAR.

Two carloads of tourists from Ohio passed thru the city yesterday enroute to Los Angeles, Cal. One of the cars attracted a good deal of attention and admiration. It was especially fitted up for cross country touring and was built on the plan of a Pullman car. The berths in the back of the car afforded room for four people to sleep and were arranged very comfortably. The front part of the car was equipped with comfortable roomy seats covered with tapestry. The car was a Red and the compartments had been designed and built by W. R. Moore of Du Bois, Penn. The tourists were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mathews of Cleveland, Ohio. General Cox, their airfare dog is making the trip too.

JACKSONVILLE BOYS SAFE

Many persons in the city are well acquainted with Percy DePaxton and Louis Van Arsdale, who have been in Pueblo for some years. Both have risen well in their calling being connected with large business houses and having an interest in them. Both came thru the awful flood in personal safety but their business houses suffered dreadfully. Water was well up to the second stories of the buildings so that the loss on dry goods would be enormous.

WILL LEAVE FOR SUMMER TRIP.

Miss Alice Phillips and Miss Florence Ward expect to leave Monday for an extended summer trip in the east. They will go first to Montreal, Canada and later to Portland, Maine, Boston and New York.

A VISITOR FROM CHICAGO

Miss Rosa Findlay, graduate nurse, has returned to her home in Chicago after a visit of several days with her brother, J. S. Findlay and family in this city.

MORGAN COUNTY DUROC BREEDERS AUTO TOUR

Nine Farms Were Visited and Herds Inspected—Officers of Association Elected.

The members of the Morgan County Duroc Breeders Association made an all day auto tour within the county visiting nine farms of Red Hog Breeders. In this tour 1971 spring pigs and 13 herd boars were inspected. Besides these there were the sows and yearlings which were seen.

One of the party gives the following account of the interesting trip:

Howard Stevenson's farm was the first stop. Here we saw Pathfinder's Sensation as head of the herd. The other sire is a son of Pearl Chief. Stevenson is to be congratulated on his herd head.

Pathfinder's Sensation stood better than 40 inches and carried better than 850 pounds and is in just good breeding condition. He is an animal worth traveling to see. Mr. Stevenson reports over 100 spring pigs.

Wilbur Williams' herd is now headed by El Vajah Jr. He has 90 thriving spring pigs. Mr. Williams is one of the farms which is equipped with a good farrowing house. Built on a half monitor type with plenty of sunlight.

Good pasture, running water, self fed oats and tankage are the makings of good hogs, said Yeck of Sanders and Yeck. He backed up his statement by showing us the evenest bunch of 115 spring pigs that you can find in the state. One hundred thirty spring pigs belong on this farm. His herd is now headed by Peter Pan.

L. A. Reed as president of the association entertained the party at his home for luncheon. The luncheon was a full grown dinner which everyone enjoyed. Thanks to Mrs. Reed. During the noon hour a business meeting was held and officers for the coming year were elected. Howard Stevenson, president; C. N. Kinnett, vice-president; C. R. Gibson, secretary-treasurer, and L. A. Reed and Wilbur Williams as directors.

In looking over Mr. Reed's herd we saw his three sires, Pathfinder's Clinas, Topfinder and Great Wonder Sensation. He had 159 spring pigs, but what attracted our attention most were his Junior Yearling litters. Something is bound to come of hogs of the type of these, as they have both size and quality along with the type.

C. R. Gibson who is just starting again in the hog game since the war has headed his herd with Colonel Topfinder. To back up the breeding qualities of this sire he showed us his 89 head of spring pigs all by this sire. Mr. Gibson's policy is one worthy of adoption by beginners. Build up as your equipment grows to accommodate you.

McDevitt and Hawker, who have about 150 spring pigs in their herd have 3 sires, Cherry Chief Model, Pathfinder's Orion and Pathfinder's Proud Climax. Pathfinder's Orion was chosen as the sire in this herd that would develop into something good. He is like what we all are working for.

M. Greenleaf, the youngest member of the Duroc Association has been breeding more for feeder hogs than for breeding stock. He has now two young sires in his herd. Sensation Model and Colonel Orion Pathfinder, Jr. His crop of spring pigs numbered 146. He is making a hog man out of his boy who is in the Pig Club.

C. N. Kinnett with a spring crop of 77 has three sires in his herd. Construction, his best and a rightly good one too. Wonder I Am and Roy Roy Pathfinder. Kinnett is coming right along in the breeding game.

The last place to visit was Oliver Hamm's. His show was his two sires, El Rajah and Pathfinder's Pal, offspring from each, his brood sows and 130 spring pigs. A grade sow and her produce in the bunch made us all feel that pure bred hogs was the only thing.

LINE UP FOR LANTZ BILL CONTEST
Advocates and Opponents of Proposed Measure are Expecting Close Vote.
(Illinois Agricultural Association Letter.)
Springfield, June 11. — Next week will see the climax of the legislative program of the organized farmers of the state when Lantz bill No. 283 to regulate the Chicago Board of Trade comes up in the house for final vote after having been postponed from decision this week by a motion of the house Tuesday.
Both proponents and opponents of the measure claim victory but admit that the final vote will be close. Board of trade leaders are said to base their predictions of triumph on the postponement of the final vote until next week. Leaders of the farmers, however, say that there is evidence to support the state-wide reports that President Joseph P. Griffin is only leading one faction of the board of trade and that he is actively opposed by another large faction within his own organization which is not against bill No. 283.
Say Board Members Split
Farmers claim that Chicago papers, which have been opposing the bills, carried reports this week giving a public statement of John Hill, Jr., said to have been a board member for thirty years, admitting evils on the board of trade as charged by farmers. Lowell Holt, said to be another prominent board member, is quoted as having flatly denied the board's plea to the public that the passage of the Lantz bills would injure the Chicago grain market.
The history of the Lantz bill has been as tempestuous as that of almost any other bill ever brought before the legislature. It first aroused national attention when, on April 27, in a hearing before the senate, a thousand farmers from sixty counties came to Springfield to support the measure. After a series of heated debates the bill was passed several weeks later by a vote of 26 to 22.
When the measure was brought up in the house the board of trade led to Springfield a delegation of several thousand who were claimed to have been farmers opposing the bill. Leaders of the farmers, however, charged that the delegation constituted a "paid lobby" and that most of the "lobbyists" were "bucket shop habitués who came to Springfield for a joy ride with all their expenses paid." Farmers made the charge that the day's lobby cost the board $60,000, declaring that one board member admitted as much.
Speakers for the board, in their turn, accused the farmers of being "Townleyites" and denied the charge that the board had highly paid propagandists at work in the country districts.
Weekly Paper Quoted
The latest broadside to be fired by the farmers has been the wide quotation of an article said to be from "Collier's Eye", a Chicago sporting weekly, declared to be "on the inside" of board affairs and to have a circulation of 1-800 among board members and employees. The article is said to be under the heading "Double Cross Charges Split Board of Trade into Factions" and is quoted as follows:
"Even President Joseph P. Griffin was openly scored by scores of traders who professed themselves to be dissatisfied as to his sincerity. Ugly charges of 'double crossing' and 'playing in to the hands of the big cash interests' were openly hurled on the floor of the board and, it is said, were carried clear to the directors' room."
Lantz bill No. 284, to restrict trading in futures, is still in the senate and may also come up for vote next week.

get Morgan county some real paved roads in the near future.
When it don't cost us a cent more why not have some state built, paved roads now instead of waiting until we are all dead of old age, and our cars worn out on bad roads. We are all paying our automobile tax each year, and our money is going into roads in other counties. Let's get action. Talking alone won't do this, but united action will.
The Eli Bridge Company has made over 200 wooden arrows painted white and lettered black, and donated them free of charge, but only a very few of these have been put on the roads pointing the way to Jacksonville. Do we want Eli Bridge Company to give us the corn and then ask them to shell it? Or will we as good citizens nail the arrows up on the road where they will do service.
Eli Bridge Company, who donated over 200 arrows reading, "Jacksonville" also offer every town in the county the same arrows pointing the way to any town in the county that will guarantee to put them up. Don't hesitate to ask for them, they are free, and you are welcome.

COULDN'T BEND TO LACE HER SHOES
Springfield Woman Had Awful Pains in Her Back, But Tanlac Ends Trouble.
I wish every person in the world knew about Tanlac, for I certainly believe the medicine would help them," declares Miss Mary C. Kane, of Capitol Park, Springfield, Ill.
"For a good many years I was bothered with disordered kidneys and a severe case of stomach trouble. My condition became so distressing that I was hardly able to get about, and many days I was so completely tired out that I had to lie down and rest before I could go any further. I had such pains in my back that times I couldn't bend over to lace my shoes. I was so nervous and restless I would hear the clock strike almost every hour of the night and would get up mornings feeling as worn out as when I retired. Bloating and palpitation of the heart made me miserable and I was troubled a great deal with constipation. Nothing seemed to help me and I was in an bad a condition as I could be, not to be down completely when I began taking Tanlac."
"It certainly is remarkable how quickly Tanlac has relieved me of my troubles, for it has only taken five bottles to change my life from one of suffering and misery to that of health and happiness. Why, I'm feeling just as fine as I ever did, and I can never praise Tanlac enough for the wonderful help it has been to me."
Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Shreve's Drug Store and all leading drug stores.—Adv.

SEPARATORLESS TRADE MARK ELECTROLYTE STORAGE BATTERY

The following is a copy of a letter the Electrolyte Battery Co. has received from Unedda Battery Company, of Richmond, Va.
UNEDA BATTERY COMPANY
Automobile Supplies and Accessories
508 E. Maine St.
Richmond, Va., May 25th, 1921.
Electrolyte Storage Battery Company,
Dear Sirs:
We have put your battery to a pretty hard test. First we burned off 50 penny spikes causing a dead short circuit. However, it did not burn off the second set, but it brought them to a white heat. Then we ran it on a self-starter for 10 minutes. Then we put it in another car that the battery was dead in and started that. We then bucked it against another battery, dead short circuiting one battery against the other. They both got so hot that they had to be handled with pliers.
We took the Electrolyte Battery down while it was so hot that we could not put a finger in the acid. The only way it was damaged was a few pimples on the negative plates, due to the intense heat.
We then put it together again with new 1300 acid and recharged it and it came up to over 1300. Then we put it in a Kline car 6 that our other battery failed to turn fast enough to start when cold. The Electrolyte turned it O. K. We cut off the ignition and put in the first gear and ran it up a 20% grade.
Respectfully yours,
(Signed) LeRoy, Sec.

A HOME IN THE FAR SOUTHWEST

As many are aware, R. P. Joy, one of Jacksonville's respected citizens, is staying with his daughter, Mrs. Shaw, wife of Professor Shaw, formerly of Illinois college and now on the staff of the state university at Urbana. Their home is in a truly romantic place. It is fittingly named Stronghold for it was there the Apache Indians made their last stand. They were the Chiricahuas, of the Apache tribe and their leader was Chief Cochise, well named the Napoleon of the Apache.

The locality was a reservation set aside by Gen. O. O. Howard in 1872 and occupied by the redskins until 1876 when they were removed to the San Carlos reservation as the locality was too near the Mexican line.

Stronghold is one of the most romantic and grand spots in the country. Not far distant is a great plain from which the road enters a space between the mountain ranges. A charming stream of water, seldom dry, runs along the canyon and on each side of the stream is a strip of arable land between it and the mountains which loom up grandly to the clouds.

It is probably two miles from the entrance to the canyon that the Shaw homestead is located. The residence is mostly adobe brick, not especially ornamental but comfortable. In both summer and winter, the Mexicans have the art of adobe construction down to a nicety. They dig up the yellow clay which abounds there, shape into brick about four inches thick and perhaps twelve by fourteen in size, let it dry a few days and without further preparation it is ready for the walls of the proposed house. More mud is mixed for mortar and the walls are laid while the roof is so constructed as to allow quite a stream of earth between it and the rafters, which serves a double purpose, keeping warm in winter and cool in summer.

Merely for the purpose of ornament the exterior walls may be plastered or covered with stucco, making the surface look very finished and even ornamental and the interior may be treated so as to permit paper hanging and other ornaments, but the great generality of adobe structures have the bare walls. Floors are either mother earth or concrete or lumber as in ordinary dwellings.

In one of these comfortable dwellings Mrs. Shaw, her son and father, R. P. Joy, reside and are joined by the professor during vacation. The professor owns eighty acres and his place has a fair amount of fruit trees of various kinds and a plot on which he plans to grow English walnuts, which do well in that locality. Last year and this the region has been afflicted with well high unprecedented frosts which did immense damage to fruit, killing a great part of all that was in bloom. They have wells which supply excellent water and have some stock also.

Prof. and Mrs. Shaw have a son sixteen or seventeen years old who was very pale and delicate and seemed to receive no benefit from any medical treatment, so they decided on this place for a residence and repaired to it last June, and now the young invalid seems to be as strong and vigorous as a person could ask. Last fall Mr. Joy went out there, too, for the benefit of his health, which had been poor for a long time and when seen by the writer he appeared to be in excellent condition. Mrs. Shaw also seemed to be in perfect health.

When the writer reached their home, two horses were saddled and the guest and Mr. Joy took a long ride still farther up the canyon and the scenery was simply superb. A wagon can be driven a mile or more beyond their home though the way is rough and uneven. There the writer saw the first manzanita bushes he had observed in Arizona, though they grow in large numbers in parts of California.

It is very unfortunate that the large trees in the canyon and on the mountain sides have all been cut down and used for furnace fires for the early smelters. The officials of the forest preserve have little to do in that locality now.

Mrs. Shaw's nearest neighbor is a mile down the canyon toward the entrance and they have a telephone privately erected for the sake of friendly communication.

In 1883 two enterprising young men, J. A. Rockafellow and Mr. Servoss, took Greeley's advice and sought the far west, and braving danger from Indians took up land in the near vicinity of Stronghold and the trees they set out are still to be seen at the site of Mr. Rockafellow's first home. The redskins were about there and dangerous till 1892 when they finally disappeared. Mr. Rockafellow was from New York, well educated, engaged in mercantile business and finally took a home in Tombstone in 1890 and adopted the regular profession of civil engineer.

About that time he went back to his home in the Empire State and sought out to his western location as a life partner. Miss Flora McNair, who has truly been a helpmeet to him all these years. She is a sister of Mrs. Taylor whose husband is one of the faculty of the State School for the Deaf in this city. They have an interesting family of sons and daughters, the latter being married to fine men, world war veterans, while the one son at home also served in the great conflict, though really too young, but he was determined to have a part in the struggle.

One of the sons-in-law had a thrilling experience while serving abroad. Of course Mr. Rockafellow didn't tell it for publication but he is so far away he can't come back at the newspaper man. In the course of his duty the young soldier ran right into a German gun nest. Quick as thought he drew his revolver, shot two and brought in the other three prisoners.

Mr. Rockafellow took his young bride to their home on the plains not far from Stronghold and while en route saw the body of a man slain by the redskins. On the mountain sides they saw the signal fires of the aborigines who had quite a code by which they could communicate with each other, and he tells with pride that his bride, just from the east, didn't faint, scream or manifest any unusual fear. In time he sold his holdings on the plains and moved into Stronghold where he built an adobe house and made himself comfortable but they only used it generally for a summer home as they went to Tombstone and erected a very good, comfortable dwelling which afforded them more company and gave the children an opportunity to attend school. Mr. Rockafellow devotes himself largely to surveying though he has a large tract of land and his son, with another young man, is looking after a lot of cattle. In ordinary years the cattle business out there is quite profitable, but for a year or two they have had little rain and bad markets have been depressing to the business, but they are holding on bravely and hope to get out all right.

Last summer they sold their first canyon home to Professor Shaw and moved a mile nearer the entrance and there built a very comfortable adobe house with a wooden lean-to which they were just about to remove to when the writer was there, and add to the home more adobe rooms. Their hospitality was generous and they were charming entertainers. Mr. Rockafellow gave many very interesting reminiscences. He is an early life but being a modest man was insistent that they be not published.

In the early days he saw much of the latter day forces sent out there to cope with the Indians and had intimate communication with many. He had a fine opinion of Gen. O. O. Howard whom he regarded as a Christian soldier and a gentleman.

When Gen. Miles was placed in command Mr. Rockafellow had some information which he deemed valuable and called at the general's headquarters and was very courteously received by the commander. He thanked him for his interest in a friendly and dignified manner and made notes of what the visitor had to offer.

The writer would like to tell much more but it is hardly fair to detail in public what was told in a semi-confidential way. However the writer will long remember the great courtesy tendered him by Mrs. Shaw and son and the Rockafellows and Mr. Joy.

Another unique character in that region is H. S. Buckley, a successful fruit grower. He was a noted base ball player in the east and some play enthusiasts brought him out there to pitch for their club. He had a nominal position at Pearce, then a highly prosperous mining town ten miles from Stronghold, where he won honors for his team.

In the course of time he had the extremely good sense to marry a highly estimable lady and decided it best to give up twirling the sphere and settle down to business. Accordingly he secured a team and with hardly any of this world's goods he landed in Stronghold and looked about. He took up a parcel of land and to support himself while he was getting his land in shape he bought and sold fruits and did other similar work. Meanwhile some persons thought his claim to the land wasn't good and tried to oust him. Things looked rather dark. He sat down and wrote directly to President Roosevelt and told him frankly the situation and it is needless to add what happened. With a love for the wild west and the hardy pioneer the executive took matters in hand and Mr. Buckley was unmolested.

He turned his attention to fruit growing and being a natural horticulturist, he gave the subject intelligent attention, studying it carefully in every way. If space permitted it would be interesting to trace his history as he and his neighbors related it to the writer but it might prove tedious.

He discovered that there were certain patches of land along the canyon which would sustain trees without irrigation and several of these he secured and now has 6,000 bearing peach trees and 2,000 apple, pear, plum and cherry trees. He is not obliged to cultivate his land very much and no weeds or other growth are to be seen on it. His wealth is estimated at $50,000 and he has accumulated it by brains and close attention to business.

His peaches he selects from different varieties so he has them first thing in the spring and last in the fall and has market for all he can produce. He has his trees branch out a foot from the ground, cuts back the new growth from a third to a half, trims out the interior of the trees and has shapely young growths not very high but very handsome and attractive.

He says his fruit has remarkable properties not possessed by that produced by irrigation. Samples of his peaches were sent to Washington City for analysis and showed, he says, 37 per cent more sugar than found in the product of California.

This year he is mourning the destruction of 70 to 80 per cent of his crop by the unprecedented frost which is well known in that latitude so near the Mexican border. Had he only invested some two or three thousand dollars in a "smudge" outfit he could have saved his crop easily worth $20,000.

Among callers in the city yesterday from Bluffs were Miss Margaret Finney and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien.

Moon Modern Motor Cars

In appearance, the Moon meets the keen desire for outward distinction and beauty. The soundness of its mechanical design and its dependability in operation are best expressed by the satisfaction of thousands of owners in America. There are no hidden shortcomings, no one or two outstanding features dominating at the sacrifice of others, but a car that has won favor by being good through and through and "having a distinct reason for each decision," the entire and immediate banishment of all make-shift and make-believe.

"CUPPLES" Red Inner Tubes

Cupples Inner Tubes are LAMINATED and built after a method that is more expensive but offers the greatest protection against flaws of any kind.

They are made up from thin sheets of the finest quality of rubber which, when vulcanized together, produces a perfect air-retaining tube. This laminated construction guards against porosity, pin holes, and defects of every kind.

Cupples Inner Tubes do not leak, seep, or creep—they are considerably heavier and stronger than the ordinary inner tube. Insist upon getting Cupples. You will have less trouble and lower tire cost.

We handle Cupples tubes and tires, the tires that won't sand blister, nor separate.

ANNUAL SERMON
TO I. C. SENIORS
SUNDAY MORNING

Many Will Participate in Procession to Baccalaureate Service—
Other Illinois Notes.

Trustees, members of the faculties the graduating classes, alumni and alumnae, and present students, are all expected to participate in the procession at the baccalaureate service. All these different classes are urged to be in the parlors of the State Street church promptly at 10:30 Sunday morning. The baccalaureate speaker will be Dr. David Hugh Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Evanston, Ill.

Friends of the College are especially reminded of the Osage Orange picnic on the campus Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Come with your lunch baskets and enjoy a good time on the old campus. The College will furnish free coffee to all friends and a caterer will be on hand with ice cream.

The trustees will hold their annual meeting at the Ayers National bank Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

President Rammelkamp will go east immediately after commencement to represent Illinois College at the inauguration of Dr. James Rowland Angell as president of Yale University. Since Illinois College is, as it were, a child of Yale, it seemed to the College authorities especially appropriate that Illinois should be represented at the Yale inauguration exercises. While in the East, Dr. Rammelkamp will also attend the 25th anniversary reunion of his class of '96 at Cornell University.

Professor George M. Dutcher, the commencement speaker, will arrive in Jacksonville Tuesday noon and will be a guest at the home of President and Mrs. Rammelkamp.

Her graduation—the milestone that simply MUST be marked with a picture.

The society reunions will be held Tuesday evening. Sigma Pi will hold their triennial reunion and banquet at the Peacock Inn; Phi Alpha will hold its love feast at the Christian church; Sigma Phi Epsilon at the Peacock Inn; Gamma Delta at Colonial Inn, and Agora at Westminster church.

George W. Waite, '80, of Lincoln, Nebraska is in town to visit relatives and to attend the commencement exercises. Bernice Wheeler, '19, of St. Paul, Minnesota, is in town to attend the commencement exercises. Among others who will be here for the commencement exercises are: James A. Meeks, '89, of Danville; Thomas Edward Dacy, '71, of Pittsfield; Thomas A. Morrison, '71, of Riverside, California; Dr. Edgar D. Wing, '71, of Galesburg; The Reverend Ivan W. Agee, '96, of Monmouth; Dr. George E. Baxter, '96, of Chicago; The Honorable Edward Clifford, '96, of Washington, D. C.; Roy M. Hitch, ex-'96, of Springfield.

The permanent record book which is to contain the names of those who have subscribed to the new endowment fund has been completed and is being bound at a Philadelphia bindery. It is hoped that the book will arrive in time for exhibition during commencement week. The cover is of vellum and the cover design has been drawn by Charles M. Capps, '20.

The College library has recently received two reprints of articles by Professor William A. Lippincott of the Kansas State Agricultural College at Manhattan, Kansas. The following are the titles: "A Hen Which Changed Color" and "The Pelvic Wing in Poultry."

The Senior Prom will be held at Armory Hall this year, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Friends of the college are cordially invited.

PUBLIC NOTICE

You and your friends are invited to attend the first public graduation exercises of the nurses of the New Home Sanitarium Tuesday, June 14, at eight o'clock at the Second Baptist Church. Dr. George L. Samuels will deliver the address.

AIMS OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

The aim of the Social Service League is to promote normal living. If a child is not receiving proper nourishment it will not develop properly. Physical ailments are almost sure to develop which in mature life may result in irreparable defects. School children are often referred to the league because they are below par physically. The mother may be a widow with a large family of children to support or the father may not be strong enough to support a family. Finding a way out of the purpose of the Social Service League. In doing so often the first person to whom we must turn for advice. Many times we find that there is some condition which can be remedied or less easily remedied by treatment or rest or proper nourishment.

In just the last few weeks several mothers have been found to have heart trouble. They must not do heavy physical labor until their physical health is much improved and the doctor pronounces them fit. Much contriving and planning is necessary to make it possible for these mothers to give up their heavy work. The way out is the way back to health and the ability to assume their own responsibilities.

PUBLIC NOTICE

You and your friends are invited to attend the first public graduation exercises of the nurses of the New Home Sanitarium Tuesday, June 14 at 8 o'clock at the Second Baptist church. Dr. George L. Samuels will deliver the address.

Forceful Facts Concerning the Interests of Former Soldiers
Sailors and Marines.

The national anthem of Uruguay has 70 verses.
Puerto Rico has 1574 men in the National Guard.

The enlisted strength of the National Guard of the United States is now 92,421 men.
In Germany, the Order of the Iron Cross was instituted by Frederick William III in 1813.

The present munitions reserve of the United States is estimated by the Ordnance Department to be worth $1,500,000,000.

Twenty states in the Union have already authorized bond issues for soldiers' bonuses, and over $36,000,000 has been marketed.

The United States army has developed a machine gun bullet of .50 calibre, capable of piercing one-inch armor plate at 200 yards.

The proposed peacetime strength of the French army is 450,000 men, of which 350,000 men will make up thirty-four infantry divisions.

Fully 100,000 men in New York City who served in the United States army and navy during the World War, are out of employment.

There is no official funeral money in the United States army; the only regulation being that taps shall be sounded at the place of burial.

In Germany, a fine is imposed for illegal recruiting or for organizing military bodies. The maximum cost is 100,000 marks (normally $24,000).

A celebration is planned for June 16 in observance of the 146th anniversary of the founding of the Quartermaster Corps of the United States army.

The War department in Washington is working on a detailed plan for marking battle-fields in Europe where American troops were engaged during the World war.

Estimates made by the Paris police department show that no fewer than 500 French war-brides have left their husbands in America and returned to their homes overseas.

Civil war invalids on the pension roll of the Federal government, on April 30, numbered 222,958; and the Civil war widows on the roll on the same date numbered 282,789.

Out of a total of deaths approximating a million, 617,000 graves of British soldiers have been definitely identified, located, and registered on various battle fronts in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Reports from Paris indicate that an average of ten French girls are going monthly, to the United States to marry Americans. Seventy-five per cent of the number are to wed former soldiers.

Rhode Island, with 80 per cent of the authorized total, now leads all other states in rebuilding the National Guard. Minnesota is second with 72 per cent and Oregon third with 68 per cent.

The majority of the 50,000 American tourists now in Paris are people of elderly age, many of whom have gone to France for the purpose of visiting the graves of relatives killed in the World war.

The first 25,000 cottages which are to be supplied by Germany for the devastated regions of France, will be divided equally between the mining regions of Bethune and Lens and the small farms east of Verdun.

The battle of the Little Big Horn is to be re-enacted in Montana, on the forty-fifth anniversary of the Custer massacre.

June 25. United States cavalrymen and the Crow and Cheyenne Indians will stage the historic battle.

American aviators, operating either with their own armies, the British, French, or Italian, destroyed a total of 854 enemy aircraft, consisting of 781 airplanes and 48 balloons.

The United States government has seized all property of the notorious draft dodger, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, in Philadelphia. The seizure of realty and accounts valued at $1,000,000, was authorized by the president, under the alien enemy law.

The British navy is considering the adoption of the American system of mounting three main battery guns in a turret. The 16-inch naval rifle, which is being mounted in all the American new minor ships and heretofore unused in the British navy, is also under consideration.

In an effort to provide organized relief for disabled men and the dependents of those who were killed in the World war, a recommendation was made at the first annual convention of the Grand Army of United Veterans, recently held at Winnipeg, for the amalgamation of all Canadian war veterans' organizations.

The publication of the so-called "slacked list" is by official request of the United States government, which takes the position that any man who has failed to straighten out his draft board record is constructively guilty of military desertion, regardless of where or how he may have served. The official list may contain names of some who served gallantly during the World war, but whose names are still carried as delinquent, due to their failure to correct the record. To guard against this, every effort is being made to check up on the War Department's listing, as far as possible, to examine each case.

NEW PLAN ADOPTED IN RAISING FUNDS

Contributors Are Given Seats at Athletic Contests for Period of Years.

Urbana, Ill., June 11.—The University of Illinois is raising $2,000,000 for a new stadium, has adopted a plan which will make it possible for every athletic contest.

Each donor will be given an option on a seat, or on a number of seats, according to the size of his contribution, for a period of years. These seats will be at his disposal for an athletic event in the stadium until his option expires.

Student who subscribes the minimum amount, $50, receives an option on one seat for ten years, or four for five years.

The unit option for students is $50, one seat for ten years and as the donation increases the number of seat options increases in the same ratio.

For alumni the unit option is $100, the minimum pledge acceptable, entitling the donor to one seat for ten years or two for five years. The pledge and the seat option increase in the same ratio. The alumni seat option plan holds also for subscribers who are neither students nor graduates.

Those who purchase memorial columns, individuals or organizations, also are entitled to seat options. The columns cost $1,000 and the buyer receives an option on 20 seats for ten years, or 40 seats for five years.

The same plan applies to boxes, options on them being given with subscriptions of $1,000 or more.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

There are 102 H-Y clubs in Illinois with a membership of 2,575, with 1,859 High school boys in Bible study. Last year thru the H-Y work there were 271 decisions for the Christian life, with 150 boys joining the church. There were 59,133 boys enrolled in the 738 High schools of Illinois in the school year of 1920. Next year we should intensify the work of the H-Y, and standardize every club in the state. We ought to promote a 4 C's campaign, vocational campaign, or campaign of friendship in each club of the state, next year. They will add much to the popularity and effectiveness of your club in the school.

The Boys' Work and Industrial work men of the central region, who met in Chicago at the Employed Boys' Institute with C. C. Robinson this spring, voted unanimously for definite promotion of Employed Boys' work in their respective fields this next year. Springfield and Danville each conducted most successful "Find Yourself" campaigns, and if you could have seen the enthusiasm of the leading business men who served as interviewers, and the boys who were interviewed you would want to go ahead at once on such a campaign in your association.

Last but not least is the State Older Boys' Conference next fall.

The conference will be held at Decatur, and the registration will be limited to one thousand delegates outside the city of Decatur. In many Associations of the state the boys are already asking about quotas, the last day of registration, and requesting that they be allowed to increase the size of their delegation. Quotas will be assigned early in October, and the registration will close November 11th, 1921. We do this not to be arbitrary, but rather to give all an equal chance.

Harvest Time Is Near

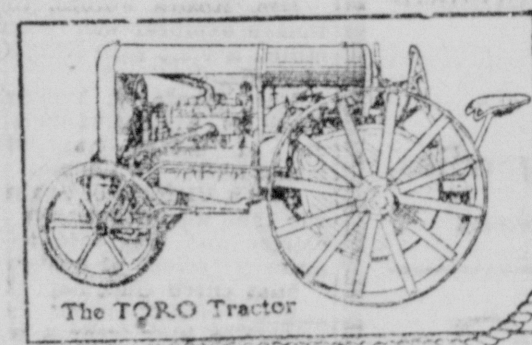

An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. If your old binder or mower gave you trouble last year, stop—think—decide. It is money saved by you to purchase a new machine as you cannot afford to lose time and grain, besides the worry trying to put up with a "has been" tool.

To Save Money Use the ToRo Tractor and Horse Flesh

CHANGES IN WHITE HALL SCHOOL BOARD

Community High School Board
Takes Over Functions of District Board—Portion of White Hall Building to be Used for Community High School.

White Hall, June 9.—A joint meeting of the community high and district boards of education was held Wednesday night, when the community board formally look over the functions of the high school. C. H. Giller, a member of the community board, stated that at the expiration of two years following the organization of the community high school district, an election will be held on the proposition of dissolving the community district.

This date falls on September 28th next, after which date the election may be called. Mr.
Giller voiced disapproval of taking over the operation of the high school until after this settlement of the issue for all time.
However, the other members of the community board outvoted

Giller, taking over the functions of the community high school, and will employ teachers and arrange with the board of education of district No. 66 for the use of a portion of the White Hall building for the operation of the community high school.
The district board accepted the resignation of Robert G.
Smith as superintendent, and he will go to the superintendent at Rushville on August 1st. This necessitates the employment of a head for the community high school.

Bonds have been voted for a community high school in the amount of $150,000. Matters have been dragging along for more than two years, and now an election on the dissolution of the community high school district will settle the matter for the future. About three weeks ago the community board received official notice of its responsibilities for the high school, at which time the district board was released from connection with the high school, its selection of three high school instructors being under a gentlemen's agreement with the community board.

Last night's action assures a high school at White Hall next term, which for a time it was indicated that there might be a hitch whereby neither educational board would undertake high school functions. Therefore the local institution will be known as a community high school until such time as the voters dissolve the district, in which eventuality the district board would immediately take over the high school without any break in its conduct should such action come even in the midst of a school term.

Miss Blanche Phillips of Clark's Chapel region traveled to the city yesterday.

Miss Rowena and Mabel Ward
